(5) An affidavit or report referred to in subsections (2), (3) and (4) will include:

(a) the name, address and qualifications of the expert;

(b) the scope of the expert's expertise;

(c) the substance of the expert's evidence; and

(d) a list of any documents that the expert will refer to.

(6) A party who fails to comply with subsection (2) may not call the expert as a witness without leave of the Panel, which may be on any conditions that the Panel considers just.

(7) A party who fails to comply with subsections (2), (3) and (4) may not file the expert's affidavit or report without leave of the Panel, which may be on any conditions that the Panel considers just.

4.7 Request to Issue a Summons

PART 5 – ADMISSION OF ALLEGATIONS

(3) The Panel may, if it is of the opinion that there are valid reasons for restricting access to a document, declare the document confidential, in full or in part, and make such other orders as it deems appropriate.

PART 7 – PRE-HEARING CONFERENCES

7.1 Directing and Requesting a Pre-Hearing Conference

(1) A Panel may direct the parties in the proceeding to participate in a pre-hearing conference at any stage of the proceeding.

(2) A party may request a pre-hearing conference by filing a request in the form of Appendix B.

7.2 Panel Not to Preside

The Panel designated to hear an application to which this Policy applies will not preside at any pre-hearing conference in connection with that matter unless the issues to be discussed at the pre-hearing conference are restricted to purely administrative case management type issues. In cases where other issues are to be discussed a new Panel will be appointed for the purposes of the pre-hearing conference only.

7.3 Notice of Pre-Hearing Conference

(1) The Registrar will give notice of a pre-hearing conference to the parties and to any other persons the Panel directs.

(2) The notice will include:

(2) At least three days before the date set for the pre-hearing conference, each party will:

(a) provide to each of the other parties all documents intended to be used at the pre-hearing conference that may be of assistance; and

Hearings

PART 8 – FAILURE TO PARTICIPATE AT THE HEARING AND WITHDRAWAL

8.1 Failure to Participate

If a Notice of Hearing has been sent to a party and the party does not attend the hearing, the Panel may proceed in the party's absence and that party is not entitled to any further notice in the proceeding.

(See also subsection 9(15) of the Act.)

8.2 Withdrawal

(2) The intervenor referred to in subsection (1) will send a notice of discontinuance to each party and on each intervenor and then file the notice with proof of sending with the Registrar.

PART 9 – PUBLIC ACCESS TO HEARINGS

(See also subsection 9(13) of the Act.)

9.1 Open to the Public Except Under Certain Conditions

(1) Subject to section 9.2, a hearing will be open to the public except, when having regard to the circumstances, the Panel is of the opinion that it would be in the public interest to order otherwise.

(2) Generally, in order for the Panel to find that it would be in the public interest to order the proceedings not be open to the public, the party seeking in camera proceedings would need to demonstrate with clear, cogent evidence that:

(a) such an order is necessary in order to prevent serious risk to an important interest because reasonably alternative measures will not prevent the risk; and

(b) the public interest in restricting access to the proceedings outweighs the public interest in open and accessible proceedings.

9.2 In Camera Hearing

If a party wishes to have a hearing held in camera, the party will make a request to the Panel before the hearing begins. The Panel will make a decision on whether or not to hold the hearing or a portion of the hearing in camera, based on the facts and circumstances of each case.

9.3 Request to Make a Visual or Audio Recording

(1) (a) Any request to make a visual or audio recording of a hearing must be made in writing to the Registrar at least five days before the day of the hearing on which the audio or visual recording is to be made.

(b) In considering a request to make a visual or audio recording of a hearing, a Panel may consider the impact of the recording on factors including:

(i) a party's rights to a fair hearing;

(ii) privacy interests;

(iii) witnesses in the proceedings; and

(iv) any other factor the Panel considers relevant.

(2) Media personnel or any person permitted to make a visual or audio recording under subsection (1) will be subject to the direction of the Panel Chair.

(3) Media personnel will not engage in any activity at the hearing that may disrupt the hearing. Disruptive activities include:

(a) interviewing persons in the hearing room or in the vicinity of the hearing room at any time;

- (b) using television lights, cables, and other equipment which could distract the persons in the hearing room;
- (c) using electronic flash for still photography;

- (e) any other behaviour that disrupts or detracts from the process of the hearing.

PART 10 – ADJOURNMENTS

10.1 How and When to Request an Adjournment

- (1) As soon as a party decides to request an adjournment, the party will advise the other parties and the Registrar.
- (2) If the other parties consent to the adjournment and the requesting party files a written request certifying that it is made on consent, the Panel may:
 - (a) refuse the request;
 - (b) reschedule the hearing without a hearing on the request; or
 - (c) require a hearing on the request.
- (3) If the parties do not consent to a request for adjournment, the requesting party will file and send a Notice of Motion to the other parties as soon as possible. The Notice of Motion will set out:
 - (a) the reasons for the adjournment;
 - (b) the length of time requested for the adjournment; and
 - (c) the earliest available dates for that party to make submissions on the motion.
- (4) If the parties do not consent, the requesting party or the party's representative will appear before the Panel to request the adjournment orally and should be prepared to proceed if the adjournment is denied and the hearing is scheduled for that day.
- (5) After considering the submissions of the parties, the Panel may grant or deny the adjournment on any terms that it considers appropriate.

10.2 Factors Considered

In deciding whether to grant an adjournment, the Panel will consider all relevant factors, including the following:

- (a) whether an adjournment would be in the public interest;
- (b) whether all parties consent to the request;
- (c) whether granting or denying the adjournment would prejudice any party;
- (d) the amount of notice of the hearing date that the requesting party received;
- (e) any prior adjournment requests made and by whom and the reasons for those prior requests;
- (f) the reasons provided to support the adjournment request;
- (g) the cost to the Authority and to the other parties for rescheduling the hearing;
- (h) evidence that the party made reasonable efforts to avoid the need for the adjournment; and
- (i) whether the adjournment is necessary to provide an opportunity for a fair hearing.

PART 11 – CONDUCT OF ORAL HEARINGS

11.1 Form of Hearing

Oral hearings will be held in-person unless, at the Panel's sole discretion, it is determined that another form of hearing is appropriate. The Panel may decide to hold all or part of any hearing by electronic means, and the Panel may decide to change the form of hearing at any time, even after the hearing has commenced.

11.2 Interpreters

If a party requires an interpreter for a language other than English, the party must notify the Registrar at least 30 days before the hearing, and the Registrar will arrange for an interpreter at the requesting party's expense.

 - (vi) re-examination by respondent relating to cross-examination or panel questions;
 - (vii) repeat with other witnesses for the respondent;
- (e) final argument first by the applicant and then by the respondent;
- (f) closing remarks by the Panel.

11.5 Affirmation of a Witness

Oral examination of witnesses will be conducted under affirmation or oath that their evidence will be true.

11.6 Transcripts of Proceedings

Official recordings of proceedings are to be taken by a court reporting services agency retained by the Authority. Parties who wish to obtain a copy of a transcript may do so by ordering it directly from the court reporting services agency at their own expense.

11.7 Final Arguments and Submissions

- (1) Except in the case of a written hearing where parties will file final written submissions pursuant to section 12.6, a party may file and send to every other party, a statement of the facts and law relied upon by the party.

- (4) A party referring to any court decision, legal article, or other authority will provide to the Registrar a copy for each member of the Panel and each party, except for authorities included in the List of Common Authorities. The party shall highlight the relevant portion(s) of the legal authorities provided. When relying on an authority from the List of Common Authorities in a written submission, a party shall identify the case name, citation, applicable paragraph and tab reference from the index to the List of Common Authorities, but need not append the authority to the submission.
- (5) Unless agreed to by the parties and ordered by the Panel prior to final argument on the merits, parties should not make submissions as to sanctions or costs in their final argument on the merits (see PART 19, section 19.3).
- (6) A party may file a draft order within the time permitted by the Panel, but will do so only if they send a copy to all other parties.

PART 12– WRITTEN HEARINGS

12.1 Application

Nothing in this Part precludes a Panel from directing that further submissions be filed in respect of a matter arising in a hearing. If the Panel so directs, the parties may also be given an opportunity to make oral submissions on a matter, which may be time-limited by the Panel.

12.2 Filing

Where this Part requires that documents be filed with the Registrar, one copy of the document shall be filed in either electronic or paper form and that copy of the document shall be deemed to be the file copy. The Registrar may require that the party filing a document must provide additional paper copies.

In this Part, “applicant” means the party who commenced the proceeding or the person who is bringing a motion.

12.4 When to Hold a Written Hearing

19.1 Issuance of Decisions

- (1) A Panel may reserve its decision or may give its decision orally at the end of the hearing.
- (2) If there is a discrepancy between an oral decision rendered at the hearing and the written decision, the written decision will prevail.

19.2 Sending of Decisions and Reasons

- (2) Following the issuance of the reasons for the decision on the merits, the Registrar will set a date for the sanctions and costs hearing if such a hearing is necessary.
- (3) Staff will file submissions regarding the matters of sanctions and costs at least 10 days before the sanctions hearing, unless the Panel directs otherwise.
- (4) A respondent will file submissions regarding the matters of sanctions and costs at least five days before the sanctions hearing, unless the Panel directs otherwise.

- (a) whether the respondent failed to comply with a procedural order or direction of the Panel;
- (b) the complexity of the proceeding;
- (c) the importance of the issues;
- (d) the conduct of Staff during the investigation and during the proceeding, and how Staff's conduct contributed to the costs of the investigation and the proceeding;
- (e) whether the respondent contributed to a shorter, more efficient, and more effective hearing, or whether the conduct of the respondent unnecessarily lengthened the duration of the proceeding;
- (f) whether any step in the proceeding was taken in an improper, vexatious, unreasonable, or negligent fashion or in error;
- (g) whether the respondent participated in the proceeding in a way that helped the Authority understand the issues before it;
- (h) whether the respondent participated in a responsible, informed, and well-prepared manner;
- (i) whether the respondent co-operated with Staff and disclosed all relevant information;
- (j) whether the respondent denied or refused to admit anything that will have been admitted;

Appendix C – GUIDELINES FOR SELF-REPRESENTED LITIGANTS ON MATTERS BEFORE THE FINANCIAL AND CONSUMER AFFAIRS AUTHORITY OF SASKATCHEWAN

NOTE: This material is for informational purposes only. It is not legal advice. It is intended to give an overview for self-represented litigants on matters before FCAA. Although you may act for yourself if you wish, you are encouraged to speak to a lawyer.

Introduction

There are many persons involved in the FCAA hearing process. These persons include:

- You (Self-Represented Litigant)

If you are not represented by a lawyer, or some other person exempted by the Rules of the Law Society, you are considered to be a "self-represented litigant". You have the right to represent yourself. There is no rule that requires you to have a lawyer to represent you.

- Your Representative

Your representative can be a lawyer, or another person as permitted by the Rules of the Law Society. Alternatively, you can request that the hearing panel (Panel) allow a person who is not a lawyer to represent you at the hearing.

- Staff of FCAA

Staff of FCAA is the party bringing the matter against you. Staff of FCAA is represented by a lawyer.

- FCAA

FCAA has a responsibility to enforce a number of laws including those under The Securities Act, 1988. One of the purposes of the Act is to provide protection to investors. The FCAA has a duty to ensure that all proceedings are fair and follow the principles of natural justice.

- The Chairperson of FCAA

The Chairperson of FCAA (the Chairperson) is appointed by Saskatchewan Lieutenant Governor in Council and reports to Saskatchewan Minister of Justice.

The Chairperson is responsible for appointing members to a Panel.

- The Panel Chair

The Chairperson selects a member of the Panel to act as Panel Chair and it is the Panel Chair that usually controls the hearing and writes the decision of the Panel. The Panel Chair and Panel Members (see below) are also responsible for ensuring that the proceedings they are appointed to oversee are conducted in accordance with the Act, the Local Policy, procedural fairness, and the principles of natural justice.

- The Panel Members

The Panel members review the evidence that was given at the hearing and together with the Panel Chair, make a final decision.

The Panel Chair and Panel Members are not staff members of FCAA.

- The Registrar

The Registrar is a staff member of FCAA. The Registrar's duties are to coordinate the hearing process and provide assistance to a Panel and parties involved in the hearing. This may include:

- Providing self-represented litigants and parties involved in the hearing process with information on hearings and reviews before FCAA
- Helping parties file their documents and other information in accordance with the Act and Local Policy
- Making sure the Panel members have all relevant information needed for the hearing
- Providing communication between the parties and the Panel
- Answering requests by the parties to see exhibits and transcripts
- Making sure the dates and location of the hearing are booked, the parties are told the date and time for the hearing, and that all equipment needed during the hearing is available when needed
- Arranging for a qualified person, typically a trained court reporter, to attend and record the hearing ("Hearing Recorder")
- Making sure the final decision is sent to the parties
- Making sure the Panel's decision is posted to the FCAA website

- The Hearing Recorder

By law, all oral evidence must be taken down in writing or recorded by electronic means. The role of the Hearing Recorder is to record hearings where oral evidence is given so that he or she can prepare a transcript of the proceedings if requested by the parties. The Hearing Recorder marks the exhibits as they are entered into evidence and maintains a list of them. No one else is permitted to record the hearing or any portion of the hearing by electronic means unless the Panel approves a request to make a visual or audio recording pursuant to section 9.3 of this Policy.

- Expert Witnesses

Panel members may require the services of an expert to assist them in understanding technical information.

- The Start of the Proceedings

A proceeding against you is started either when a temporary cease trade order is issued or when staff of FCAA files a Statement of Allegations that sets out the claims against you and sends that Statement of Allegations to you. If a temporary cease trade order (the “TCTO”) is issued against you, the TCTO will be sent to you and filed with the Registrar.

- Statement of Allegations and Notice of First Appearance

Once the Statement of Allegations is sent to you, you will receive notice from FCAA staff that disclosure of its evidence is available to you. You will need to provide the FCAA Staff with proof of your address for the purposes of receiving disclosure, and advise how you would like to receive the disclosure (electronic or paper). Once this information is received by the Registrar, FCAA staff will provide you with the disclosure materials. Concurrently, staff will prepare a Notice of First Appearance, which is the notice you will receive that states the date and time of the First Appearance Conference Call.

- First Appearance Conference Call

The Notice of First Appearance that you receive will have a date and time listed for a conference call, along with the telephone number and passcode for the call. The date and time will be at least 10 days after the date you are deemed to have received the Notice of First Appearance. The purpose of this first appearance conference call is to schedule a date or dates for the hearing of the matter. You should participate in this first appearance conference call to ensure that the scheduled date(s) for the hearing is/are suitable to you.

If you are unable to participate in the first appearance conference call, you should contact the Registrar, by phone at (306) 787-5646 or by email at registrarfcaa@gov.sk.ca, before the call in order to ask for a new date for the first appearance conference call.

If you do not participate in the first appearance conference call, it may proceed in your absence and a date or dates for the hearing of the matter may be scheduled in your absence.

If, after the date(s) for the hearing is/are scheduled, it becomes known to you that you are unable to attend on the scheduled date(s), you must contact the Registrar as soon as possible to request that the hearing be re-scheduled.

If you do not attend at the hearing, it may proceed in your absence and you may not receive any further notice of the proceedings.

Options during the Proceedings

1. Negotiate a Settlement Agreement;
2. Negotiate an Agreed Statement of Facts; or
3. Attend a Hearing.

1. Negotiating a Settlement Agreement

If you agree with the claim against you and you do not wish to go through with the hearing, you should contact legal counsel for staff of FCAA to discuss settlement. It may be possible for you to enter into a Settlement Agreement. Settlement can occur at any time prior to the date of the hearing. If settlement is reached before the hearing date, the parties still need to present the Settlement Agreement to the Panel for approval. If approved, a settlement has the effect of concluding the matter.

2. Negotiating an Agreed Statement of Facts

If you are in agreement with some of the facts in the Statement of Allegations, it may be possible to admit those facts prior to the hearing.

The facts that you have admitted would be presented to the Panel at the hearing of the matter. This means there will not be any need for staff of FCAA to prove the facts which you have admitted. If you do not admit all the facts in the Statement of Allegations, there will still be a hearing to deal with those portions of the Statement of Allegations that you disagree with and to impose sanctions.

3. Attending a hearing

If you disagree with some or all of the facts in the Statement of Allegations, you can contact the Registrar of FCAA who will provide you with information on hearings such as Saskatchewan Policy Statement 12-602 – Procedure on Hearings and Reviews Before the Commission \(Local Policy\).

Applications

You may bring an application (sometimes referred to as a motion) to the hearing panel before or during the hearing. An example of an application is an application for adjournment. The panel directs whether the application is to be argued in person or heard by conference call.

The person making the application is called “the applicant” for the purposes of that application. Generally, you will send the application to FCAA staff. However, in exceptional circumstances, you may ask for permission from the Hearing Panel to bring an application without sending it to FCAA staff.

As the applicant, you must:

- Contact the Registrar to set a time and date for the panel to hear the motion,
- File a notice of motion with a sworn statement(s) (affidavit) including documents in support of the application,
- File proof that you have sent the application to FCAA Staff at least seven days before the date when the application is to be heard unless you received permission from the hearing panel not to send the application to FCAA staff,
- Send a summary of your argument in relation to the application to FCAA staff unless you received permission from the hearing panel not to send the application to FCAA staff
- File a summary of your argument in relation to the application with the Registrar at least two days before the day on which the application is to be heard.

The form for a notice of motion and the form of affidavit are at pages 34-38. You can also bring an application by sending a letter to the registrar setting out what you are seeking.

Note that you should send your application to the Registrar not to the hearing panel.

Hearing Procedure

- Disclosure

Legal counsel for Staff of FCAA is required to disclose all relevant information in FCAA's possession to you. If you do not receive all relevant information, you should contact legal counsel for Staff of FCAA and make a request for the information. The purpose of disclosing all relevant information to you is to assist you in preparing for your response. There are limitations on what disclosure can be used for. Unless otherwise instructed by the Hearing Panel, you will be required to provide an undertaking in writing confirming that you will only use the information for preparing for your defence, and not for any other reason, prior to receiving the disclosure documents.

In most cases disclosure will be provided to you in PDF format on a USB stick. If you want disclosure in a different format, you should inform legal counsel for Staff of FCAA. If you do not have access to a computer or printer, you can ask legal counsel for staff of FCAA to provide you with disclosure in paper format.

You must deliver to staff of FCAA copies of all documents that you intend to produce or enter as evidence at the hearing as soon as possible and at least 20 days before the day of the hearing. If you do not disclose a document, you may not refer to it at the hearing without permission from the Panel.

- Documents to be Filed prior to the Hearing

At least 10 days before the hearing you and legal counsel for Staff of FCAA must provide each other, and file with the Registrar, a list of witnesses that will be called at the hearing.

At least 5 days before the hearing you must send your written response to all parties. You must then file your written response and proof you sent it to all parties with the Registrar. The written response is a document in which you state whether you admit or deny each of the allegations made in the Statement of Allegations.

Any documents that need to be filed should be filed by e-mail to the Registrar or by personal delivery, mail, facsimile transmission or courier to the offices of FCAA, marked to the attention of the Registrar. You always have to provide a copy to legal counsel for staff of FCAA prior to filing unless the Local Policy or the Panel permits otherwise. Legal counsel for Staff of FCAA must also provide you with any documents he or she intends to file with the Registrar prior to filing, unless an exception is allowed by the Local Policy or the Panel.

- Legal Research

If you do not have a lawyer for the hearing, you may need to do your own legal research to learn about the specific law in your case and to develop your argument. Information on securities law may be found online at the following links:

- Saskatchewan Securities Laws
- The Financial and Consumer Affairs Authority of Saskatchewan Act
- The Securities Act, 1988
- Regulations Under The Securities Act, 1988
- Case law: <https://www.canlii.org/>

It is a good idea to make notes about how you want to present your argument at the hearing, and have copies of any law or evidence you plan to rely on. You may want to speak to a lawyer about how to present and argue your case at the hearing. If you cannot afford the services of a lawyer, Staff of FCAA may point you to publications or articles you may read to get a better sense of how to prepare your case. You should keep in mind that there is a limit to the level of assistance you may receive from Staff of FCAA.

- Conduct of the Hearing

Legal counsel for Staff of FCAA goes first and presents his or her evidence by calling witnesses until his or her case is completed. You then follow the same procedure.

Following the testimony of each witness (including your own) the other party has the right to cross-examine the witness on any relevant point within the knowledge of the witness. The Panel may instruct you as to what is relevant, if necessary.

It is important to keep in mind, however, that the purpose of cross-examination is to question the witness and it is NOT the time for making statements or giving evidence of your own. This will come in due course when you are called upon to do so. In preparing for the hearing, you should make a list of points you wish to ask each witness about. You are also entitled to object to questions asked to witnesses or answers provided by witnesses. The Panel reserves the right to allow or disallow your objections.

As soon as both sides have finished questioning the witnesses, all parties, starting with legal counsel for Staff of FCAA, sum up their position. This is called “closing argument” and is based upon the evidence presented to the Panel and any appropriate legal point you wish the Panel to consider. Again, it may be useful for you to make a list of points you wish to cover in your closing argument.

The Panel may ask questions to you or your witnesses in the course of the hearing and you should do your best to answer them without making any assumptions or speculations. If you do not understand a question from the Panel, it is okay to ask for clarification. If you do not know the answer, it is okay to state as such to the Panel.

Upon conclusion of the hearing, the Panel may direct you and legal counsel for Staff of FCAA to provide a written summary of your arguments. Unless otherwise specified, if a brief or memorandum of law is requested from any party, it must be filed in accordance with any timeline set by the Panel.

- Form of hearing

Except in exceptional circumstances, hearings are conducted in person.

- Evidence

A case can only be proved or disproved by the use of evidence. Evidence can take the form of testimony from you, as well as from other witnesses. You may also provide pictures, diagrams, and so forth, all used to support your case. It is a good idea to gather and prepare your evidence well in advance of the hearing date.

All evidence should be given by a witness personally from his or her own observations or involvement. While hearsay evidence (evidence about what someone else said, or documents prepared by someone else) may be admitted by the Panel there is also a chance it may not be, and therefore it should be avoided if possible. You should note that hearsay evidence is sometimes not given the same weight as evidence provided by a witness who had personal knowledge.

On occasion, a party may wish to use an expert witness to give an opinion. This may be permitted upon application. If the Panel accepts that the expert is qualified to give such expert opinion evidence, and if the appropriate steps have been taken to give notice to the other party of the expert’s testimony, the Panel may permit the testimony. An example may be an accountant who is called to testify as to the proper methods to be used in creating various financial documents.

You should arrange to have your witness at the hearing venue on time on the hearing date. To ensure attendance of a witness at the hearing, you can serve a subpoena on the witness. To obtain a subpoena, you must contact the Registrar and provide the requested information.

In some circumstances, the Panel may permit a witness to be heard by telephone. If you wish to have a witness appear by telephone you should submit an application to the Registrar ahead of time to request approval from the Panel to do so. You should send a copy of such application to legal counsel for Staff of FCAA so he or she may respond to it.

Your witnesses cannot sit in on the hearing before they testify.

- Burden of Proof

In matters before a Panel, legal counsel for Staff of FCAA bears the burden of proving the allegations on a balance of probabilities, meaning they must prove that it is more likely than not that the actions alleged occurred. Determining proof involves the Panel weighing and considering the evidence from both sides, like a balancing scale. If the scale weighs at least 51% in favour of the staff of FCAA's case, then it has proved its case. If it is 50-50, staff of FCAA has not proved its case.

It is important to remember that it is not the number of witnesses that gives weight to the outcome, but what the witness says, and whether the witness is believable or credible. It may be that more than one witness confirming a point will add weight or credibility to that point; however, the quality of the case is not necessarily weakened by fewer witnesses.

- Testifying at the Hearing

Prior to testifying at a hearing, the witness (including yourself if you choose to testify) must swear an oath or affirm that he or she will tell the truth. It is a criminal offence to give false evidence once you have been sworn or affirmed.

If you are testifying, it may be a good idea for you to prepare a point form summary which you may use to refresh your memory.

If you have documents (such as financial documents or other forms) to support your defence, they should be presented in the course of testimony. For each exhibit, you should bring the original if possible, as well as copies for legal counsel for staff of FCAA and the Panel (so, the original plus four copies). If you are uncertain about process at the hearing, you should not be afraid to ask the Panel a question.

All exhibits entered into evidence are kept by the Panel until the appeal period has passed. If no appeal is taken from the Panel's decision, the exhibits can be returned by an order of the Panel upon application/request by the party asking that the exhibits be returned.

- General Information

Be on time for the hearing and be ready to proceed. If you are late, the hearing may proceed in your absence, and an Order may be made.

Just as the Panel and legal counsel for staff of FCAA should be polite and courteous to you, you should be polite and courteous to the Panel and legal counsel for staff of FCAA.

At the conclusion of the case, the Panel may decide immediately, or alternatively, may “reserve” its decision. In any event, you will always receive a written decision in the mail or email, usually within a reasonable time upon conclusion of the hearing. Ensure to provide the Registrar with your current contact information.

If you are directly affected by a decision of a Panel and the Court of Appeal gives you permission, called leave, you can appeal the Panel’s decision to that Court on questions of law only. Before you can file your actual appeal, you must first apply for leave to appeal within 15 days of the decision unless the Court of Appeal extends this time period for you. In preparing your case, you must comply with the Court’s formal requirements. See also some helpful videos from the Court for self-represented litigants.

Any documents that are filed with the Registrar in respect of your matter may be posted on the FCAA website (see section 6.1 of this Policy).

If you have any questions regarding these Guidelines, or other questions regarding FCAA hearing procedures, you should contact the Registrar by phone at (306) 787-5646 or by email at registrarfcaa@gov.sk.ca. Please note that the Registrar cannot provide legal advice and there is a limit to the type of administrative assistance the Registrar can provide.
